On the Road: Return to Gates Pass

This was the second drive over the Tucson Mountains in recent months. Splendid weather and breakfast at Teresa's Mosaic Café, plus spirited driving. The winter residents are returning and we had good turnout. See Greg's recently purchased MGBGT on the next page.

Tucson Classics Car Show

TBCR was well represented at the Rotary Club of Tucson's 13th car show. The club had 27 cars and there were perhaps ten other British entrants. It was impossible to get a picture of the row we occupied, it was too big.

A highlight was the TBCR award of the Spirit of Britain to Tamara Becker and her Healey (top right on page 6). This family car was featured in the Register last year.

Tamara and the Spirit of Britain trophy.
She had family with her and a nice display.

It was a fairly dusty day and it kept those with dusters busy. That's Craig attending to his stunning big Healey.
